WELCOME TO THE FRINGE!

The Winnipeg Fringe believes all participants - performers, patrons, volunteers and staff - deserve a respectful and inclusive environment in which to experience the festival.

We invite everyone to enjoy the range of entertainment and offer a welcoming, inclusive, safe and respectful environment for all members of our community and visitors, no matter their age, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, appearance, ethnicity, religion or any other protected characteristic as defined by provincial Human Rights law.

All concerns brought to Fringe staff will be reviewed and taken seriously. The Winnipeg Fringe has the right to ask any person who is creating an unsafe atmosphere to leave the festival.

Thank you for your support and have fun Fringing!

The Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival is proud to call Manitoba home. The Winnipeg Fringe is located in Winnipeg on Treaty 1, the traditional territory of the Anishinaabeg, Inninewak, Anishinewak, Dakota Oyate and Denesuline, and the National Homeland of the Red River Métis. We are thankful for the benefits sharing this land has afforded us, acknowledge the responsibilities of the Treaties, and embrace the opportunity to partner with Indigenous communities in spirit of reconciliation and collaboration.

GREETINGS

Every July as the Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival gets closer to opening day, I look forward to seeing thousands of Fringers bustling from venue to venue excitedly anticipating all the incredible shows they're going to enjoy over 12 days.

This year, we're welcoming more than 160 indoor productions from Manitoba, across Canada, and as far away as Australia, Brazil, Germany, New Zealand, Switzerland, United Kingdom and the US.

These talented artists are eager to share their unique stories with you.

When I used to visit the arcade with my friends, I always looked forward to my favourite games that I really enjoyed, was pretty good at, and always hoped to challenge the high score. But what was also exciting was trying new games and discovering the fun they could provide. The arrival of the Fringe program is just like that next visit to the arcade; it's filled with so many possible fun experiences that give Fringe fans the opportunity to take in some old favourites while getting to know exciting new artists.

So, start flipping through the program, highlight all the shows that pique your curiosity, get a Frequent Fringer Pass and go full tilt at the Fringe.

I hope you have a blast, and remember, summertime is Fringe time!

Chuck McEwen

Executive Producer, Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival

Welcome to Royal MTC's off-season, which is actually one of our busiest and most fun times of the year. That's because it's Fringe!

At Royal MTC we exist to hold an open door for all Manitobans, and the Winnipeg Fringe Festival is one of the most powerful ways we achieve this aim. Each year we welcome 40,000+ theatre lovers to the festival, many of whom see multiple shows. Even more surprising, Royal MTC is the only regional theatre in North America to run a Fringe Festival. Our support allows the Fringe to do what it does best: put the artists front and centre, where all box office proceeds go directly to artists!

We love the Fringe for so many reasons. First of all, the festival is a unique opportunity for emerging artists to learn the ropes. Much of our city's onstage and behind-the-scenes talent started their careers at the Fringe.

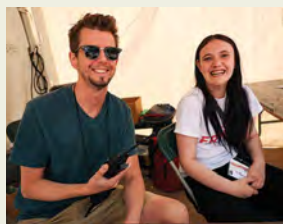

The festival is also the perfect showcase for seasoned artists to present new and original work, and the Winnipeg Fringe boasts amazing talent from around the corner, and across the globe! We know self-producing is hugely challenging and the Fringe provides a welcome environment for creative risk-taking.

Royal MTC is incredibly proud to present the Fringe year after year, but it goes without saying that we don't do it on our own. So thank you to our amazing staff, dedicated volunteers, accommodating venue hosts, generous donors and loyal sponsors who play a crucial role in keeping the festival going.

And, of course, our heartfelt appreciation to the amazing artists and audiences who come together to build a one-of-a-kind community over 12 magical days every July. See you at the Fringe!

OUR VOLUNTEERS HAVE GAME!

Without our volunteers, it would be game over. These friendly, talented and hardworking individuals play every role – they sell tickets, keep young ones busy at Kids Fringe, answer all sorts of questions and keep the festival site tidy. All over 12 hectic days and in every kind of weather!

We're grateful to our 800 volunteers, who generously donate thousands of hours to create an unmatched festival atmosphere.

Special thanks to the volunteers who have taken their dedication to the next level for 25 years or more. We appreciate you!

GREETINGS

Welcome to the 39th Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival!

Each summer, Winnipeg's historic Exchange District and vibrant downtown are transformed into a stage where imagination knows no bounds. This remarkable festival brings together artists from Manitoba, across Canada, and around the world, inviting audiences to discover the richness of contemporary performance in all its forms.

From musicals and plays to improv, dance, magic, puppets and cabarets, alongside lively outdoor programming and family activities, there is something for every Fringer to enjoy.

In a country as vast as ours, the arts have the power to bring us together. I want to thank the organizers, volunteers and artists. Through your work and passion, you help create spaces where our culture and arts are enjoyed and celebrated locally.

Enjoy the shows!

The Honourable Marc Miller

Minister of Canadian Identity and Culture and Minister responsible for Official Languages, Government of Canada

On behalf of my colleagues at the Manitoba Legislative Assembly, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival.

Each summer, the Fringe brings thousands of audience members together to experience one of Manitoba's most energetic cultural celebrations. Over 12 exciting days, more than 150 productions, alongside outdoor performances, live music, and family-friendly programming, truly animate

Winnipeg's historic Exchange District, Old Market Square and a variety of venues nearby.

The festival is renowned for its welcoming and inclusive spirit, offering a stage for both emerging and established artists from across Canada and around the world. It is a place where creative risk-taking flourishes, new voices are celebrated, and audiences can discover bold, original storytelling in all its forms.

This remarkable event would not be possible without the dedication of hundreds of volunteers, the passionate organizers, supportive sponsors, and of course the many performers and creatives who contribute their time, talent and passion each year. These efforts help ensure the continued success of a festival that has become a cherished tradition for so many.

Thank you to everyone who makes the Fringe such a memorable experience. I wish you all an inspiring and enjoyable festival.

The Honourable Nellie Kennedy

Minister of Sport, Culture, Heritage and Tourism, Government of Manitoba

Every summer, the Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival transforms the Exchange District into one of the most vibrant and exciting places to be in our city.

Last year, I attended several Fringe shows and was once again reminded why this festival is such a beloved Winnipeg tradition. Whether it's theatre, comedy, music, storytelling, or something wonderfully difficult to describe, each performance offers something unique and special that reflects the incredible creativity of the artists involved.

Thank you to the Winnipeg Fringe staff, the dedicated volunteers, performers, sponsors and supporters who make this festival possible year after year. Your hard work helps create an event that energizes our downtown, supports the arts and brings people together.

Happy Fringing!

Mayor Scott Gillingham

City of Winnipeg

Welcome to Fringe!

Fringe isn't just a festival. It's a movement that champions independent artists and makes artistic expression possible.

The Canadian Association of Fringe Festivals (CAFF) powers a grassroots network of 32 open-access festivals across North America, working together to support independent artists and nurture the vibrant communities that champion them.

Together, our festivals sell more than 400,000 tickets to more than 10,000 performances performed by more than 6,500 artists each year. Collectively, our festivals annually generate nearly $50 million in economic impact and return more than $5 million in ticket revenue directly to artists.

We are a do-it-yourself community whose big dreams accomplish so much – proof that when communities invest in creativity, everyone thrives.

If this is your first Fringe Festival, consider this your enthusiastic invitation to fringe with us.

Try something new. Fringe is the perfect place to take a chance on the unexpected. See a show (or five! or ten!). Sometimes it's brilliant. Sometimes it's bizarre. Sometimes it changes you.

Artists deserve bold audiences. Every ticket you buy directly supports independent artists taking creative risks.

Stories bring people together. In times of celebration. In times of uncertainty. In the messy, beautiful unknown between.

Fringe Festivals matter. From small towns to major cities, you can find a Fringe in nearly every province, territory and state – each one powered by the same radical belief that storytelling belongs to everyone.

If you believe in what Fringe makes possible, please support your local Fringe Festival. Buy a ticket. Donate. Volunteer your time. Spread the word. Champion the artists who bravely tell their stories.

Because Fringe isn't just something you attend. It's something you help create.

Happy Fringing,

Megan Dart

President, Canadian Association of Fringe Festivals

Level up, Game On, Play Hard

Before the lights come on, before the line-ups start, before the artists step on stage creating moments no one expects, donors "Level Up" for the Fringe with their gifts.

Donations to the Fringe create memorable moments of discovery, wonder, laughter and reflection. Donors keep Fringe a place where ideas come to life, where artists are celebrated and where audiences say, "Game on, I'm ready for the unexpected."

Every gift to the Fringe builds moments of community. The kind of community where audiences and performers connect through story and shared experiences during 12 fabulous days every July.

If you're ready to make sure the Fringe continues to "Play Hard", make your donation at winnipegfringe.com or call Alixe at 204 954 6411.

THANK YOU! THE DONORS LISTED BELOW MADE THEIR GIFT BETWEEN JUNE 1, 2025 AND MAY 31, 2026.

HOW TO FRINGE

SELECT YOUR SHOWS > Use this guide or go online to read show descriptions. Performers come up with classifications to represent their shows. We highly encourage patrons to carefully read the descriptions, age recommendations, warnings and accessibility options to find a show that's best for you.

FRINGE WITH RESPECT > Performers put in countless hours to mount a Fringe show. Please respect the performers by following a few guidelines: arrive early (latecomers aren't permitted), refrain from taking photos or video, and turn off all devices.

BUDGET-FRIENDLY FRINGING > Get more for less! We offer $10 tickets at the door for Fringers under 25 and companies may offer additional door discounts. Not enough savings? We also offer select "$10 tix" performances, which are highlighted in yellow. There are also Pay-What-You-Can door tickets at Kids Venue. All discounts are listed with the show descriptions.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION > Word of mouth is a great way to hear rave reviews from fellow Fringers in Old Market Square, in the beer tent or online. Visit winipegfringereviews.com to read reviews from fellow patrons or submit your own.

Take the conversation to social media for even more ways to connect! Be sure to tag us and use the hashtag #WPGFRINGE.

RECHARGE AND RELAX

After a long day of Fringing, there’s nothing quite like the refreshing taste of a cold beer, cooler, glass of wine or Bubly at the Liquor Mart Patio and Torque Brewing Beer Tent. We offer a selection of Torque Brewing beers to tantalize your taste buds, including Blonde Ale, Classic Lager, Workhorse Pale Ale, Hazy Whaler IPA, Mangoza! and Roadrunner Raspberry Wheat.

To complete your experience, pair your beverage with a delicious snack from one of our friendly food vendors. Kick back, relax and let the combination of great drinks, good food and lively entertainment help you unwind. Cheers to a memorable Fringing experience!

LIVE MUSIC

If you're a fan of the incredibly talented bands, musicians and DJs from Manitoba's music scene, don't miss the fantastic line-up of artists performing at Old Market Square. No matter when you attend, you're likely to catch some great music! Check out the featured bands every night at 9:30pm (like Fringe fave Doctor Rocktopus or the new Moody Grooves) and our DJ series at 10:30pm nightly (including Mama Cutsworth and GENIE).

Visit winnipegfringe.com for a complete list of musical acts and showtimes.

FEATURED STREET PERFORMERS

The Bell MTS Outdoor Stage hosts jugglers, acrobats and other amazing acts who perform death-defying stunts, dazzle with one-of-a-kind skill and win you over with comedy.

Our featured performers include: Chris without the Hat, Corey Pickett, Melody & Mayhem!, The Twins' Trip and Yoshi.Show.

VENDOR MARKET

Winnipeg isn't just full of talented performers but gifted artisans as well! We have a wide range of items available from our diverse merchant vendors including t-shirts, jewelry, tote bags, prints, books, pins, buttons, crafts, art, clothing and much more! Browse their wares and support local in our vendor market located in the Red River College courtyard.

Vendors can attend for just three or all 12 days of the Fringe. Visit winnipegfringe.com for a complete list of vendors including: Achie Collection, Anxiety, Apple Box Photo Booth, Bookman, Cuteness_vintage, Jay's Creative Studio, JODE adornments, The Placeholder Show and Shirom arts collections.

SUPPORT THE ENTERTAINERS

Show your support for our talented street performers and rocking local bands on the Bell MTS Outdoor Stage. Since access to Old Market Square is free, our performers rely on donations from generous audiences like you - so make sure to give back when they pass the hat!

PET POLICY

We love our furry four-legged friends, but we ask that you leave your pets at home. The festival isn't animal-friendly (hot pavement, crowded atmosphere that may overwhelm your pet) and festival-goers may not be comfortable around pets. Our goal is to keep the festival safe and welcoming for all visitors. Please note that service dogs are allowed.

WASHROOMS AND ATMS

The festival provides public washrooms in Old Market Square on King Street beside the Red River College Paterson GlobalFoods Institute. We encourage Fringers to be conscientious and use festival facilities in lieu of surrounding businesses. Since many food vendors only accept cash, ATMs are available at the Liquor Mart Patio and in the Royal MTC lobby. New this year, Fringers can purchase drinks with credit and debit cards at the Liquor Mart Patio and Torque Beer Tent.

Double Dare Magic NEW WORK!

By Double Dare Magic & Kelly Saltel Music by Arthur & Leslie Stead

Ready for magic, mayhem and a few mysterious carrots? Double Dare Magic is a high-energy, anything-can-happen adventure starring Manitoba's own award-winning siblings Tanek & Wynter.

This dynamic duo will take you on a journey into the wonderful world of magic, powered by imagination and non-stop fun! It's a fast-paced, interactive, kid-friendly adventure designed for the whole family.

Come for the magic; stay for the carrots.

★★★★ "Wynter's magical workings are a delight"

Grimm's Fairer Tales

Written & Performed by Eden Ballantyne

With wolves, witches and goblins, the story unfolds as the audience are invited to become part of the drama.

The Brothers Grimm collected their classic tales over 200 years ago. Today, award-winning interactive storyteller Eden has reimagined them for a contemporary audience. Maybe Little Red Riding Hood won't have to wait for the woodcutter to save her? There may be a house of gingerbread, but what else is waiting in the woods?

★★★★ "A must see for anyone with children, especially those who enjoy performing!" - One4review, EdFringe 2018

Mr Richard's World of Magic and Puppets

Mr Richard - Family Comedy Magic and Puppets from Winnipeg, MB presents The "Mactriloquist".

Mr Richard is a one-of-a-kind magician and ventriloquist - or as he proudly calls himself, a "Mactriloquist".

Blending mind-bending magic with sharp ventriloquism and animated cartoon-style comedy, he delivers a performance that's as original as it is unforgettable.

The Not-So-Secret Life of Rowena Riddle

By Zoe Henderson

Rowena Riddle is an unusual superhero on a very important mission... if only she could remember what it was!

With storytelling, humour (and a little help from the audience), Rowena shares how she learned that what makes her special could be a superpower and even seemingly small actions can make a difference in the world.

SHORT KING NEW WORK!

By Gordon Neill

The King has banned shadows from his entire kingdom. It hasn't helped.

SHORT KING is an adventure about a tiny ruler with a very big grief, and the quest that forces him to finally face it.

Featuring shadow puppetry and audience participation, it's a wildly theatrical show about loss, courage and why our shadows are nothing to be afraid of. For brave young adventurers and the grown-ups beside them.

Black Butterfly NEW WORK!

By Blackwestward Productions

A wedding. A choice. One moment that changes everything.

Black Butterfly is a bold, emotionally charged play blending music, drama, humour and dance. It follows Laide, a young woman torn between love, duty and her truth.

Set against a vibrant African celebration with a contemporary edge, it explores identity and self-discovery.

Raw, sharp and deeply human. You'll laugh, gasp and feel it in your chest long after the curtain falls.

Our Father NEW WORK!

By Ethan Stark

Ethan Stark, ★★★★★ and Harry S. Rintoul Award honourable mention, is thrilled to present his newest play, the story of Sophie and Oliver, who, BE NOT AFRAID, um, sorry, not sure what happened there... anyway, these two siblings are planning their father's funeral after years of estrangement - DENY, I'm sorry, did anybody else hear that? Hahaha, what am I saying, how would you even hear that, you're not in the room while I write this, as I was saying, this play, WE WERE HERE, seriously - what is going on???

Promise & Promiscuity: A New Musical by Jane Austen & Penny Ashton

By Penny Ashton & Jane Austen

Ashton's beloved Austen musical returns as sparkly as ever. Join Elspeth as she battles literary snobs and her mother's nerves, armed only with a blushing countenance and being quite bright. You know... for a girl. In this hilarious, one-(freakishly talented)-woman show, Penny tackles all of Austen's characters with song, dance and appalling cross-stitching.

The Rocky Horror Show

By Richard O'Brien

From the producers of Little Shop of Horrors (★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press), Fringe 2024. The Dramatic Theatre Company, with North Kildonan Community Players, celebrates 50 years of The Rocky Horror Show.

When Brad and Janet seek help on a stormy night, they stumble into Dr. Frank-N-Furter's electrifying world - where identities are shaken, rules are shattered and liberation comes with a beat.

Expect high-energy rock, outrageous characters and theatrical mayhem that dares you to dance in the dark.

Sweat

By Juliet Palmer & Anna Chatterton

Sweat is a bold and socially charged a cappella opera. At a moment when labour rights are rapidly deteriorating and union-busting remains widespread, Sweat offers a pointed and necessary artistic expression.

The opera unfolds in a garment factory where unsafe working conditions, long hours and fear of dismissal rule everyday life. A new worker arrives and dares to advocate for collective action. Instead of progress, the workers are locked inside the factory when a red carpet fashion moment sends consumer demand soaring.

Tango After Midnight NEW WORK!

By PointeTango

★★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press

When the sun sets in Argentina, a new dance emerges. Award-winning dance company PointeTango (Best of Festival, Patron's Pick, Favourite Dance Show) presents a breathtaking new show where the elegance of ballet meets the passion of Argentine tango.

Featuring 2025 Canadian Tango Champions Erin and Alexander, this production pairs spectacular acrobatic lifts with cinematic projections of Buenos Aires. It's fast, it's fierce and the pointe-heel tango fusion is "unlike anything you've ever seen" (VanArts Revue).

Four Hearts

By Tony Beeman

Four Hearts is a darkly comic improvised play exploring love, betrayal and family. Inspired by the raw realism of Albee's Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, Miller's All My Sons and Wilson's Fences, an ensemble of original and local actors interview the audience for gossip to create characters based on real viewpoints.

Set during a volatile dinner party, illusions are stripped away to reveal the truth. After runs in Colombia, Japan and Seattle, Four Hearts brings its spontaneous, painfully truthful theatre to Winnipeg!

The Golden Boys

By Anthony Ferens

Four men, living in one house, compete to become the next "Golden Boy." Blake masks his fear of aging with vanity; Devin wrestles with bitterness and a fading career; Sam resists being defined by his age; and Ross stumbles through life with good intentions.

As they clash and connect, the play sharply explores masculinity, insecurity and loneliness—asking: who has what it takes to be the next Golden Boy? In Winnipeg, ambition, pride and vulnerability collide in unexpected, often hilarious ways.

QUALIA

By (in)sight/Keegan Steele

Join (in)sight tap dance collective in their new, Lynchian genre-bending work.

Tap dancer and artist Ella Steele embodies the unconventional narrator and ageless entity "Miss Baby", as she explores childhood, memory and the human experience.

Based on the new poem HER YOU GOT MILES by collaborator Keegan Steele, this experimental and non-linear piece is told through tap dance, poetry and electronic sound design by David Lafleur.

QUALIA is sure to place you in the middle of a strange, unexpected and beautiful dream.

Could Kill But Creates NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Devyna Stewart Brook

In this developing reflection of her mother's suicide 10 years ago, Devyna's solo performance uses sculpture, storytelling and dance to emphasize something deeply human: "Could Kill, But Creates."

This piece honours her mother's love of her dancing, and her love of her mother, to explore the most natural progression in the world: birth, life and change.

Maintaining a delicate balance between rage and compassion, sadness and hope, she invites you to suspend in that space with her.

Mother's Secret

By Jo MacDonald

From the company that brought you ★★★★★ (Winnipeg Free Press) The Auntie Show (2025), Agency (2024) and Neechies (2023), we are thrilled to bring Mother's Secret to the Fringe, a new twist on an old play by Anishinaabe playwright Jo MacDonald.

Mother's Secret introduces us to two daughters who conspire to move their elderly mother into an assisted living facility but discover that her past is full of mystery and intrigue.

Now, Don't Get Upset

Written & Performed by Rachel S. Hunter

Another voicemail. Have you called your mom back? She probably wants to see photos of her grandpets and discuss local politics or movies.

Now, Don't Get Upset is a solo dance monologue about a mother-daughter relationship that sifts through all the layers, hurdles, lessons, baggage, humour, grief and love within.

From the growing pains in childhood to reversing roles in care-taking, this show takes a humorous yet heartfelt stroll down one particular memory lane. Audience members will be invited to respond and engage in post-show activities.

Quintland, The Musical

NEW WORK!

By Janna Larsen

Set against the backdrop of the Great Depression, this powerful new musical follows the extraordinary rise and heartbreaking exploitation of the Dionne quintuplets, born in the small farming town of Corbeil, Ontario, in 1934.

After their unprecedented birth inspires a struggling nation, government leaders and medical authorities seize custody under the guise of protection, transforming the infants into international sensations and the centrepiece of a booming tourist attraction known as QUINTLAND.

tony wrestles a stranger

Written & Performed by Tony Adams

A deliberate display of daddy issues.

A surreal family reunion that is like a hot dog-eating contest meets performance art. Through physical challenges like 15 minutes of burpees or eating a pack of hot dogs, Tony explores and interrogates their various axes of identity in a performance that is visceral and tender. All crafted so that Tony and their dad, who hopefully shows up, can finally have some father-kid moments they missed out on.

Creator of: Happiness™ (★★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press) and Gary (★★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press).

The Truth is Out There: An Improvised X-Files

By Club Soda Improv

Ever had a haunting feeling you just can't shake? A nightmare that seemed too real? A visit from the paranormal?

Scully and Mulder are on the case. Cutting through the fog of conspiracy, Club Soda Improv (★★★★★ 1/2 - Winnipeg Free Press) brings the suspense, charm and flirtation of your favourite '90s science fiction drama series to the stage.

Each performance will be inspired by your spooky experiences, unanswered questions, and the simple truth that we all want to believe! Even if The X-Files is new to you, we promise you'll be hooked.

100mls or Less

Written & Performed by Darren Millar

Pat-downs! Random selections! Celebrity encounters!

Darren Millar graduated from university a teacher but wound up in an airport security uniform. For 12 long years, he spent his days taking away tiny shampoo bottles and pocket knives at Victoria International Airport. He has a lot of feelings about these years and a carry-on suitcase full of stories.

One man's examination of the consequences of our choices as he unpacks his experience from the lows of patting down your old college roommate to the highs of celebrity "random selections."

Human$ NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Wayne James

Human$ - who are they, where did they come from and where are they going?

"Yes, we have a story," said the farmer. "It's about heritage, it's organic, it's an expression of life in word and song."

Ancient wisdom holds that all things are connected. Science says everything happens for a reason. So how is it we are living in an age of...uncertainty, insanity?

La Vie Parisienne NEW WORK!

By Lisa Pasold

Is Paris really all champagne cocktails on the Champs-Élysées? What about that night you woke up smiling in a Pigalle gutter, wearing nothing but feathers?

Welcome to Joe Zelli's smoky Montmartre club, where the ghost of Serge Gainsbourg plays piano. Classic chansons from Brel, Piaf and more, sung by Bremner, with the phenomenal true story of Zelli's 1920s Paris nightclub, where music and wild stories burned bright.

No Worries If Not

Written & Performed by Katie-Ellen Humphries

A comedy about people pleasing (if that's okay with you). Called "the darling of Canadian public radio," comedian Katie-Ellen Humphries (CBC's The Debaters) masterfully blends standup and storytelling in this joke-filled solo show.

Audiences can expect refreshing sincerity and razor-sharp jokes from the experienced comic along with a surprising tale of love, lying and laundry.

Sounds from the Meat Machine

NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by W. Bradley Torres

Sounds from the Meat Machine is a dissection of music composition through an increasingly necessary lens of dystopic modernity. Might a song echo the humanity of its creator? Or are we drawn to it - sometimes - because it's just a bop.

Brad Torres (composer Cast Away: A Musical Parody) leverages his decades as a music educator and improv comedian to take audience prompts, concluding the performance with the showcase of a brand-new piece - created in real time - of what some might call art.

2.0 World Peace through Humor: A German 101

By Paco Erhard

Held at the US-MEX border. An, um, differently intelligent officer. How did Paco get here? Where do we as humanity want to go? And is a German comedian a sign of the apocalypse?

Cathartically funny, sold out in 2025 and further improved for 2026, Fringe favourite Paco Erhard spins 75 mins of belly laughs into a gleeful story of global connection.

Wanna laugh hard and feel optimistic again? Then this fiercely funny "internationalist manifesto" is 100% you.

Couch Surfing

NEW WORK!

By The Kinkonauts

Much like friends hanging out on the couch, Couch Surfing is improvisers making you laugh, getting real and being weird. Taking words of inspiration from the audience, the performers will create worlds and characters that will surprise even them.

Playing out funny situations, singing goofy songs and finding little games, you will feel like you are in on the inside jokes created right in front of you.

The best part? It's different every night. Come hang out with us and see what shenanigans we get up to!

East of Berlin

By Hannah Moscovitch

Rudi stands outside his father's study in Paraguay, struggling to find the courage to go in. It's been seven years since he left after uncovering the truth: his father was a doctor at Auschwitz.

Haunted by a past he didn't create but can't escape, Rudi is forced to grapple with this legacy and the weight of inherited guilt.

Presented in co-production with We'll Do It Live, the company behind Fringe hits A Behanding in Spokane (★★★★★) and The Elephant Song (★★★★).

Fakespeare

By Fakespeare

Patrick Hercamp (Sound & Fury) performs the Bard's work like you've never seen it before! This award-winning comedian condenses Shakespeare's best loved tragedies, characters and iconic moments into a blisteringly funny vaudeville romp where the audience chooses which play is performed. This show is for Shakespeare fans and total illiterates.

The Green Grab

NEW WORK!

By All About Theatre

The Green Grab is a political satire. Dorothy is deported to Greenland during an American invasion. She meets the Scarecrow, Tin Man and Cowardly Lion on her journey. Together they must outsmart the monstrous witch and his army of goons.

Is there any rainbow of peace to be found in these baffling and disturbing times? Based on accurate and neutral reporting, along with a zany twist on The Wizard of Oz.

Letters

By Brian Langlotz

Inspired by real events of World War II and military personnel in the playwright's own family.

Follow the story of Paul Bailey, a Canadian soldier fighting his way through Italy during World War II, and his wife Betty and daughter Dorothy waiting at home for his return. It is told through the letters they send to each other.

"Ken Burns meets Frank Capra in this polished war-time drama with the look and feel of It's a Wonderful Life"

- Wendy King, Winnipeg Free Press

The Review by Martin Dockery

NEW WORK!

By Martin Dockery

Like a blend of Succession, Black Mirror, Glengarry Glen Ross and The Twilight Zone, two lawyers vie for dominance as they clash over an inappropriate photo during an annual performance review.

A comedic drama crackling with tension and suspense. From the creator/performer of Inescapable, The Stakeout, Truth, 1 Small Lie and Forbidden City!

Directed by Vanessa Quesnelle, starring Andrew Broaddus and Martin Dockery. Over 18 years of touring, Dockery has won more than 70 worldwide awards.

Viento

NEW WORK!

By Dr. Michael G. Becker, PhD & Mr. Matthew Koroscil, B.A.

From the brilliant minds that brought you the smash hit Musicals are Stupid: A Stupid Musical...

The Olde West was an unforgiving place. The land was treacherous and the people were treacherous. In such a land, the only thing anybody could truly trust was their horse.

Come witness the harrowing tale of a former outlaw, betrayed by his own gang, on a quest for vengeance. His one goal: to get back his only friend - his majestic horse, the powerful yet beautiful VIENTO.

Where We Fly from Hospital Beds

NEW WORK!

By Cyan Gargol

Two sisters, Agnes and Margot, role-play as Space Cadets while Agnes goes through cancer treatments - but their space adventures start taking weird turns as Agnes' hospital stay becomes uncertain.

Part drama, part Star Trek satire, Where We Fly from Hospital Beds is an original work that asks the question: how do you keep exploring when the future is unknown?

A play filled with sock puppets, tears and the Star Ship Pudding Cup.

Will you boldly go where no one has gone before... with us?

False Profits

Written & Performed by Jeff Leard

They promised the wealth would trickle down and when we turned our backs, they pissed in our cups.

From the creator of Sperm Wars, The Show Must Go On and The Jupiter Rebellion comes a new solo comedy that takes aim at the absurdities of late-stage capitalism.

False Profits shines a light on a wealthy class that has spent years pulling strings in the dark, and drags them out from their hiding place for all to see.

Lover Girl NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Tamara Lynn Robert

From her bold beginnings as a street outreach crisis worker to the battlegrounds of couples therapy, Tamara Lynn Robert is a force who has spent three decades trying to make better lovers of us all... while her own love life is an epic, extraordinary mess.

Professionally, she's unstoppable. Personally, she's a lover-girl train wreck.

Lover Girl is a funny and tender solo show about love, loss and the superpowers we develop to avoid both.

ONE MORE TIME NEW WORK!

By Sam Campbell

ONE MORE TIME is a twisted game show where contestants compete for the most addictive prize of all: approval.

Hosted by a mischievous Devil, players must win the audience's laughter, survive impossible challenges and sabotage each other to stay in the spotlight. But the rules keep changing, and the audience may have more power than they realize.

Part improv comedy and part social experiment, this fast-paced Fringe show explores the pressure to perform, be liked, and keep the crowd entertained... No matter the cost.

Saving the Station NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Jim Priebe

Who doesn't love community radio? What could possibly go wrong when you start one from scratch?

In this solo show, Jim recounts the wild launch of a volunteer-run FM station in small town Ontario - and the betrayal, mutiny, sabotage and dead air that followed. What begins as an idealistic dream turns into something stranger, funnier and darker than expected.

A story of ambition, community and collapse, Saving the Station brings a cast of outsized characters to life in a tale where the signal goes out, but the damage keeps spreading.

Eleven Please NEW WORK!

Written by Ryan Osodo

Most elevator rides last a few seconds. This one doesn't.
Eleven Please follows five people with one thing in common... a shitty elevator. Will they manage to survive the elevator and each other? Will this unfortunate twist of fate turn into an opportunity to sort out grievances? Will secrets be revealed?
After their successful 2025 Winnipeg Fringe Festival debut with pool (no water), Kinetica Creative is back with a thrilling new work written by Ryan Osodo.
An absurd genre-clashing ride all the way to the top!

On Tidy Endings

By Harvey Fierstein

Whose loss is it in the end?
That's the bone of contention between a man and a woman who meet to tidy up loose ends following the death of the man they both loved. Through their confrontation and conversation, the play explores themes of grief, acceptance, lingering love, resentment and unexpected connection.
This piece from Harvey Fierstein's Safe Sex Trilogy is poignant, witty, raw and emotionally powerful, blending humour with heartbreak.

Serious Comedy

Written & Performed by Adam Bailey & Quinn Greene

Feel free to schedule one hour of laughter into your day before returning to your other important responsibilities. This can provide a much-needed dopamine release, allowing you to maintain a productive lifestyle.

This break provided by Quinn Greene (Winnipeg) and Adam Bailey (Toronto) can help with mental recovery when facing multiple tasks in a busy calendar. Laughter increases your energy expenditure by up to 20% above resting levels, and time at the Fringe can contribute to your daily 10,000 step count.

Your goals are in reach.

Who's Gonna Push Your Wheelchair? NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Karin Fekko

What happens when a girl with bad boyfriends, a messy family and a predilection for self-sabotage faces a future of disability?

Karin Fekko weaves tales of hilarity and tragedy through her fight for independence as she confronts multiple sclerosis ... action-packed with breakups, love bombs, pregnancy, estrangement, marriage, smothering and bad credit.

From the creator of 2025's Multiple Neurosis:

★★★★★ "hilarious and heartbreaking" – Edmonton Journal
"a masterclass in storytelling" – The Jenny Revue

Your Real Girlfriend from Canada NEW WORK!

By Hannah Clark

This raw and darkly funny memoir by Winnipeg storyteller Hannah Clark follows two very different people through a 15-year timeline—from star-crossed teen lovers to the heaviest shadows of each other's past. Your Real Girlfriend from Canada weaves together stories of youthful recklessness, culture shock and heartbreak.

This show takes a blunt but compassionate view into the mess that occurs when people love each other badly, and the aftermath that is equally formative, complex and very, very real.

'80s Commercials

By TJ Dawe

Fringe fave TJ Dawe (The Slipknot, Medicine, Blueberries Are Assholes) returns, riffing on TV commercials from the 1980s, a decade when everything was excellent, choice, and unintentionally, hopelessly bizarre. Expect pastel colours, zippy computer graphics and jingles that'll stay in your brain for weeks.

"This guy's headed for the stand-up hall of fame"
- Georgia Straight

"Dawe can actually make you hurt with laughter" - Montreal Gazette

"A flawless performer" - Charleston City Paper

"Come and see what a real virtuoso can do" - Edmonton Journal

Bullheaded

NEW WORK!

Created & Performed by Hailley Rhoda

From the company that brought you The Redemption of Heracles and Kore comes another myth retold. Bullheaded is Pasiphae's side of the story. The mother behind the Minotaur. The woman inside the cow suit.

This story has it all - love. Cows. The consequences of being too stubborn to let go.

A Comedy Show at the End of the World

NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Jon Blair

Comedy may not have prevented the apocalypse, but it can make it a lot more fun!

Gather around the barrel fire with former showbusiness comedian Johnny as he entertains the post-apocalyptic settlement of New Garbagetown with an evening of sketch comedy, stories and music that will have you saying, "Okay, I guess he does still serve a function in this community!"

Lead Local. Run Local. Shape the Future.

School trustees make decisions that shape classrooms, communities, and futures.

When local voices step up to lead, students benefit.

If you've ever thought about making a difference in your community, now is the time to run for school trustee. Your leadership can help strengthen schools, support students, and your leadership ensures local priorities are heard.

You don't have to be an expert—just someone who cares about local voice and local choice when it comes to public education in your community and are ready to serve.

Democracy works best when people step forward.

Lead. Run. Be part of public education in Manitoba.

This is your chance to lead, support, and shape education close to home.

Contact your local school division to learn more about how trusteeship looks in your community.

Eleanor's Story: Life After War

Written & Performed by Ingrid Garner

★★★★★ "A captivated full-house audience went from tears to breath held in suspense to roaring laughter." - Edmonton Journal

Ingrid Garner, 18-time award-winning creator of Eleanor's Story: An American Girl In Hitler's Germany, delivers a stand-alone sequel to her grandmother's memoir.

Eleanor came of age as an enemy alien in Nazi Berlin. Now upon her long-awaited return to America, she struggles to navigate high school while haunted by war memories. World War II may be over, but the battle within has just begun.

Randy and Elizabeth: A Savage Love Story

By Geoff Hughes

★★★★★ "Even if you are not a wrestling fan, this unique show is not to be missed." - Winnipeg Free Press

"I do not care for wrestling, yet I still enjoyed this show." - UMF

Geoff Hughes aka The "Macho MANitoban" returns after SOLD-OUT performances and standing ovations last year!

This one-man tribute to Randy "Macho Man" Savage covers his thrilling career and rocky marriage to manager Miss Elizabeth. It also tells the story of young Geoff, fascinated by professional wrestling, and the dangers of meeting your heroes.

The (Un)Official (Un)Researched History of Manitoba

NEW WORK!

By Alex Coates

Did you pay attention in history class? Neither did we!

That's why VoLto Theatre and SensibleChuckleTheatre (Let's Kill A Dragon, 2024) have joined forces to create a wildly imaginative and likely inaccurate journey through time: The (Un)Official (Un)Researched History of Manitoba.

This fast-paced comedy blends complete absurdity with fierce local pride, mixing potentially real characters with sharp satire in a chaotic homage to the middle province. No facts, just laughs.

Another Side of Rice

NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Nicholas Rice

I started out as a shy, fatherless, Jewish kid in River Heights - on Lanark Street between Corydon and Grosvenor.

Now I'm 74 - an actor, writer, teacher, devoted dad. And I'm on a lifelong quest to become a gentleman - not just any old man but a gentle one, too.

You'll find some of my stories funny, some of them sad - all of them, I promise, totally true.

Dedicated, with love, to the memory of my cousin Tommy Churchill and my dad Joe Rice.

Life can be messy, death doesn't have to be.

What if you could have complete control over the most important moment of your life - your death? Come visit A Curated Exit!

Meet Zoe. She sells a device that vaporizes dead bodies and replaces them with a programmed experience. But when her husband Steve dies suddenly, Zoe's quest to craft perfect endings is interrupted.

This play explores grief, memory, and the fragile line between technology and humanity.

Embarrassed Naked Female (this show contains nudity)

NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Elsa Couvreur

In 2020, I made my solo show The Sensemaker temporarily available online. The video quickly became highly sought-after in certain corners of the internet - all because of the five minutes of nudity it contains. Years later, I'm still having to take it down from various adult forums where it keeps resurfacing without my consent.

Embarrassed Naked Female (this show contains nudity) is a lecture-performance built like a forensic thriller: a deep dive into the rabbit hole of internet communities and my bizarre encounters with the men in them.

Finding Rem Lezar NEW WORK!

Written by Christian M. Leeson, Based on Creating Rem Lezar by Scott Zakarin

Zack and Ashlee were once children with a gift for imagination that was so amazing they brought their imaginary friend, Rem Lezar, to life. Following an unforgettable journey of singing, dancing and learning, the two friends, who were once bound by their love of imagination and Rem Lezar, have gone their separate ways.

Now teenagers, the two are struggling to deal with the harsh realities of life. When fate conspires to bring the duo back together, will they find a way to put their differences aside and rekindle their lost friendship?

Hair Brained NEW WORK!

By Sara Cherrywood & Geoff Hughes

Let your hair down and enjoy this light-hearted, wholesome, shut-your-brain-off sketch comedy!

Geoff's hair = comedy gold.

Two friends have devised a half-hour of hilarious sketches inspired by Geoff's wild hair. Sara and Geoff met at the 2025 Fringe after performing in the same venue. Sara performed in Lysistrata (★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press); Geoff performed in Randy & Elizabeth: A Savage Love Story (★★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press).

They bonded over a love of comedy, improv and theatre. They have been friends and colleagues ever since.

How Much Can You Change for Someone You Love? NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Randy Ross

Novelist and Fringe veteran Randy Ross presents the wonders and woes of modern romance. The show offers a unique take on psychotherapy and committed relationships - they're not for everyone and that's OK.

Part storytelling, part comedy and part off-kilter author talk. A must-see for readers, writers, lovers, haters, loners and high-functioning neurotics.

Site #57 NEW WORK!

By Eve Ross Moore

When Hailey finds her relationship with her long-term boyfriend (and her life's plan) falling apart, she takes her half-sister along for what used to be their anniversary tradition: a weekend of tranquility spent at campsite #57.

But when a stranger arrives claiming he also has the same site booked, that peace is put to a test. As the evening progresses, the sisters start to suspect this stranger may know more about them than he has been letting on.

Somewhere Up There In The Sky NEW WORK!

By Ryan Osodo

Somewhere Up There In The Sky is a story that explores what it means for a person to live.

Two strangers find themselves on an island and slowly find out there couldn't possibly be a worse pair to work together. As they learn to put their differences aside, and with nothing but time on their hands, they find themselves reflecting on their lives and sharing their journeys with the only other person in their little world.

You are Happy

Translated by Leanna Brodie from the play Deux ans de votre vie by Rébecca Déraspe

"Everyone needs to be two. Everyone."

When Bridget finds her brother hanging in her closet - again - she is determined to find him something to live for. In the personal care aisle, between rows of razors and body wash, she stumbles upon Chloe. One dubiously binding contract later, Chloe has signed on to be Jeremy's new live-in girlfriend.

Brilliantly Awkward NEW WORK!
By Adam Schwartz

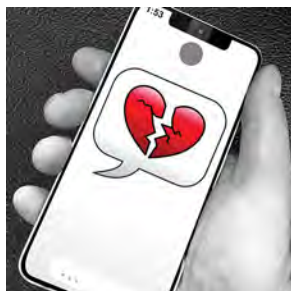

In 2017, Edmonton Journal described Adam as “brilliantly awkward, you will love it. He has the social skills of a young baby goat.” ★★★★★

Since then, Adam has gotten slightly more brilliant and a lot more awkward. In this new comedy special, he explores what it means to be autistic. Whether it's the conundrum of how much to tip paid friends, whether accommodations are accommodative enough, or his ongoing quest to be good at making eye contact, this show will leave you laughing and slightly more informed.

Looking for Love in All the Weird Places NEW WORK!
Written & Performed by Joel Passante

What is love? You're born, you grow up, you hopefully fall in love, and things go from there. However, sometimes what you think is your one true love just doesn't work out.

From the creator of 2025's EGGSHELLS comes a tale of trying to find what's next, attempting to solve life's great mystery of trying to date in your 40s after divorce, and ultimately figuring out if there really is true love after all.

Winnipeg is a Lie NEW WORK!
By Portage and Mayhem

Winnipeg is a Lie is a fast-paced, funny love letter to this city. Part game show, part improvised history(ish) lesson.

A cast answers questions about the weirdest moments in Winnipeg history, then spins truths or lies. You decide what's fact and what's fiction. Audience judgment is final, but rarely correct.

"None of this is historically accurate - please tell these people to stop quoting my work," says Winnipeg historian Christian Cassidy.

Surprise guests, cheap beer and a love for the Peg.

RIGHT PLACE, WRONG MAN: Another Grant Canyon Mystery

NEW WORK!

By Ryan Gladstone & Bruce Horak

GRANT CANYON IS BACK! The long-awaited sequel to No Tweed Too Tight is finally here.

Canyon is a perpetually drunk insurance investigator, who can only stay conscious long enough to rack up empty bottles, satisfied ladies and dead bodies. Boozy, bloody, bruised and brilliant. Fringe noir at its messiest.

When Grant Canyon is on the case, the world is a dangerous place!

;) FOOL'S GAMBIT

Written & Performed by Alastair Knowles, Aaron Malkin, Nayana Fielkov & Chloe Ziner

:) FOOL'S GAMBIT is a high-energy improv showdown, starring Aaron Malkin and Alastair Knowles (James & Jamesy), Nayana Fielkov (Ragmop Theatre) and Chloe Ziner (Mind of a Snail Puppet Co.). Together, they dive headfirst into the unknown, transforming nothing into something hilarious, absurd and delightfully unpredictable.

Live-camera video and comedic risk-taking collide in a game where the only rule is: keep playing. Who wins? Who loses? Who cares? The joke is always on us.

The 7 Lives of Louis Riel

Adapted by Katie German, Genevieve Pelletier & Cory Wojcik from the play by Ryan Gladstone

The story of Louis Riel told seven times, from seven different points of view, in seven different genres.

Originally created and performed by Monster Theatre's Ryan Gladstone, now adapted and given a Métis makeover by Winnipeg theatre vets Katie German, Genevieve Pelletier and Cory Wojcik.

Louis Riel's incredible story is shown like never before – betrayal, insanity, stand-offs, murder, espionage, prophecy and John A. Macdonald!

Chase Padgett: The Next Guy NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Chase Padgett

Fringe favourite Chase Padgett returns with his most personal show yet. The Next Guy is a funny and heartfelt story about surviving a midlife crisis, an unexpected love triangle, and the long road back after grief changes everything.

Told through Padgett's signature mix of storytelling, music and virtuosic guitar, this uplifting new show explores how losing the life you thought you had might lead to becoming the person you were meant to be.

The Ballad of Isobel Gunn NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Melanie Gall

A new musical starring Fringe favourite Melanie Gall.

The extraordinary true tale of Isobel Gunn, a Scottish woman who explored Canada in 1806, living and working as a man. After journeying from remote Orkney, Isobel travelled 1800 miles across the Canadian wilderness as “John Fubbister”, a labourer in the fur trade. But when she unexpectedly gives birth one winter morning, Isobel’s identity is revealed...

Flunked NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Ashley Evans

She followed the plan. She got the degree. She failed anyway.

Flunked is a solo storytelling dramedy with live piano about academic pressure, family expectations, and what happens when “work hard and you’ll succeed” turns out to be a lie. Ashley Evans, musical director at SAK Comedy Lab, spirals from reluctant engineer to academic collapse and the long, unglamorous rebuild after.

Middle Child NEW WORK!

By Kathleen Greenfield, Tony Adams & Jack Widow

From the co-creator of Interstellar Elder (★★★★★) and Little Orange Man (★★★★★).

Meet the middle child: the peacemaker, squished between, easily overlooked, yet never alone. Three Bouffon clowns crawl from childhood wreckage to reenact, distort and delight in the chaos that made them. With physical comedy and warped nostalgia, they conjure sibling rivalries. A how-to guide for surviving childhood, put through a blender.

Sharp, silly, and strangely heartfelt – you’ll laugh, squirm and recognize monsters in your own family.

Story Story Lie

By Jo Dworschak & DD Brassiere

CAN YOU SPOT THE LIAR? “This is going to be fun.” – CBC

This show is full of it! Story Story Lie invites the audience to separate fact from fiction. Three Fringe performers tell unbelievable, high-stakes stories.

The catch: one is a lie. The audience asks questions to get to the bottom of it. The first to correctly guess the liar wins.

Highly praised as thrilling and unpredictable.

The Dungeons and Dragons Improv Show XVII: The Rise of the Lich NEW WORK!

By Jesse Miki

Enraging the corrupt King of Heropolis, a tragic archmage descends into darkness. Finding allies in the exiled and outcast, the archmage plans to rewind reality to exactly how HE remembers it.

An unlikely band of heroes finds themselves fighting for the same future: a wish-granting naiad, a slime archaeologist, a jaded elf shoemaker, a jock orc, a lizard aristocrat and three goblins in a trench coat!

Expect epic quests, a giant minotaur and an unbelievable amount of blood.

Strange Things: A Stranger Things Parody NEW WORK!

By Meraki Theatre

After a regular night in the town of Hawk, Will heads home after spending the evening with his best friends Dustin, Lucas and Mike. But right on cue, a thunderstorm rolls in, flipping his life upside down. What follows is a comical parody musical with "missing kids", definitely life-like monsters and suspicious secrets.

From the team behind the ★★★★★ production of Rewritten, this all-teenage musical delivers laughs, heart, waffles, and proves friendship makes even the strangest adventure worthwhile.

FISSION: the Death of Dr. Louis Slotin NEW WORK!
By Gilles Messier

May 1946. Winnipeg-born physicist Louis Slotin, who helped arm the first atomic bomb, suffers a horrific radiation accident while performing a top-secret experiment.

As he lays dying, his family and colleagues struggle to make sense of his legacy. Was Slotin an unfortunate victim of the Atomic Age? A hero who selflessly saved his colleagues from certain death? A reckless daredevil who took unnecessary risks? Or was the truth far more unsettling?

A haunting historical drama from the creator of the Fringe 2025 smash hit If Day.

It's Eric's birthday. His wife has planned a surprise party for him. Everyone is there.

Believing his wife is out of town, Eric has given himself another gift... an evening with another woman. A door-slaming comedy follows. This quick FRENCH comedy will keep you on your toes!

English subtitles available.

C'est la fête d'Éric. Sa femme lui a préparé une fête surprise. Croyant que sa femme était partie, Éric s'est fait un autre cadeau... une soirée avec une autre femme. Un claquage de porte comique s'ensuit.

House of Gold: The Musical NEW WORK!

By Thomas McLeod

The family of late country music legend John Gold have gathered for the birthday of his identical grandson, Jimmy Gold. They're hoping he has the talent to bring them back their family fortune. It's almost like he was...made for it. But if he's not up to the task, what is his life really worth?

A new musical adapted from the hit 2024 play (★★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press) brought to you by the team behind 2025's Third Party (★★★★★ - Edmonton Journal; ★★★★★ 1/2 - Winnipeg Free Press).

It's Just You & Me NEW WORK!

By Stephanie Ann Lilley

This inventive contemporary dance show explores fluidity of identity; how we all experience reinventions of self throughout life. We curate the parts of ourselves that we want to keep and shed what no longer serves us. Sometimes these reinventions are intentional and, at other times, they are driven by circumstance.

★★★★★ - Edmonton Journal

Lies of a Promiscuous Woman

Original script by Audra Lesosky, adapted by Theresa Thomson

She's back, and she blames the edit.

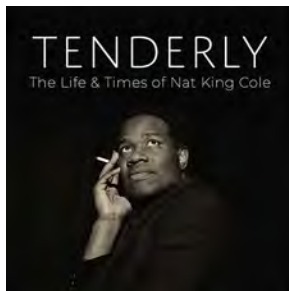

After her controversial appearance at the 2014 Fringe, the Virgin has returned to retell her side of the greatest story ever told.

★★★★★ "The production veers into blasphemy and heartache but is never far from hilarity. Theresa Thomson provides a perfect foil to perceptions of the original virgin." - CBC

Backed up by her Madonna-singing cantors, the mother of all stage moms is waging holy war on the patriarchy, the church and god for her little piece of heaven.

Tenderly: The Life & Times of Nat King Cole NEW WORK!

By Duane Forrest

Award-winning artist Duane Forrest brings Nat King Cole's music to life through soulful performance and storytelling.

Blending jazz classics with personal reflection, Tenderly explores how a Black artist in 1950s America became a cultural pioneer while navigating a world that celebrated him onstage but resisted him off it.

A moving, intimate journey through legacy, identity and the quiet power of belonging.

Thor's A Dick - Viking Legends Not For Kids

Written & Performed by Eden Ballantyne

NEW WORK!

Join British storyteller Eden as he returns to Winnipeg to tell some of the darker tales from the old north.

Today we see Thor and the Norse gods as heroes, but like a lot of the ancient gods, they were full of faults and more human in their anger, jealousy and spite. One man, a few stories - all that's missing is the fire we won't be sat around.

From the creator who brought the award-winning Buckets of Blood - Fairy Tales Not for Kids.

"Eden - a natural storyteller with a twinkle in his eye."

THE HARRY S. RINTOUL AWARD

The Fringe has always been a welcoming and encouraging place for artists to share new work with audiences. Since 2002, the Manitoba Association of Playwrights (MAP), the centre for play development in our province, has presented an award for Best New Manitoba Play at the Winnipeg Fringe Festival in memory and honour of Harry Rintoul, a leading Manitoba playwright and founding Artistic Director of Theatre Projects Manitoba.

The award recipients are selected by a panel of theatre professionals. The winner receives a $750 prize, and an honourable mention receives $250.

In 2025 the award was presented by MAP Executive Producer Daniel Thau-Eleff to Ellen Peterson for her play The Goose, with an honourable mention going to Third Party by Thomas McLeod.

Unresolved NEW WORK!
By Allan Turner

No parent should outlive their child, but... what if you do? How do you cope? How do you grieve? How do you go on living? What if you can't? What if someone's to blame? What if that someone is... you?

Jack and Melissa have lost their daughter, Jadyn, and their unspoken grief festers between them in a vicious cycle of shame and guilt, unassuaged by well-intentioned relatives and clergy.

Don't miss this haunting, bold new piece from local playwright Allan Turner.

The Ghost of a Flea NEW WORK!

By Logan Stefanson

Vacancy available at 188 Holmes Street! An old "character" building in the heart of the city, Holmes is the perfect apartment for anyone (given you can handle the pests, the mold, the thin walls, the apathetic owners or the break-ins).

When new caretaker Osric finds that his favourite tenant has vanished into thin air, he leads an investigation through the building's dark hallways to find her and uncover the building's many dark mysteries – encountering burning furniture, skeletal figures, half-eaten cats and secrets as old as the city.

Paper Fathers: Shadows and the Songs We Leave Behind NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Tim Hogue

An exploration of fatherhood, identity and legacy through a man shaped by loss and violence. Facing trauma and addiction, he chooses love and music to break the cycle and become the father he never had.

Through a mirror narrative of failure and transformation, one path reveals the cost of not changing, while the other reveals what change makes possible. At its heart, it asks: what do we carry forward, and what do we choose to leave behind?

What audiences are saying: "Raw, honest, and deeply human." "Poignant and powerful."

ELEANOR'S STORY
LIFE AFTER WAR

A standalone sequel to Eleanor's Story: An American Girl in Hitler's Germany
performed by Eleanor's granddaughter, 20X award-winner Ingrid Garner

Babel NEW WORK!
By Jesse & Thomas Krause

Babel retells the ancient story of people who tried to build a tower to heaven, for a world still driven to build higher and faster.

Geräuschbiest's brotherly harmonies and purpose-made new instruments shape the narrative, while the Riel Gentlemen's Choir builds a tower live onstage.

As ambition grows, unity begins to crack. When language fractures, everything starts to unravel, live in front of you.

From the creators of Dreams of Nebuchadnezzar (Winnipeg Fringe Festival 2023).

The Glass Between Us NEW WORK!
By Kathleen A. Einarsson

Set in Winnipeg, The Glass Between Us follows two women who never see each other, yet form an unlikely friendship.

Kate, rebuilding her life after an abusive marriage, ventures into the unpredictable and sometimes hilarious world of online dating. On the neighbouring balcony, Marge offers sharp wit and steady wisdom.

As awkward dates and small triumphs unfold, their daily balcony conversations become a catalyst to healing. With feminine resilience, Kate learns she is tough like a daisy and finds the courage to bloom again.

The Crown Witness is a Stand-Up Comedian?

NEW WORK!

By Jeff Gobeil

The Crown Witness is a Stand-Up Comedian? is a darkly funny solo show from Winnipeg comedian Jeff Gobeil. Coming from a family of lawyers, Jeff always knew he might end up in court someday, just not like this.

After reporting his childhood abuser to police, Jeff finds himself on the stand as the Crown witness. As the trial unfolds, he processes the experience the only way he knows how: through comedy.

Blending courtroom testimony with stand-up, this powerful story moves between heavy and hilarious.

Mennonite Metamorphosis: How to become a secular Mennonite in 500 years or less!

By Sandra Banman & Catherine Hume

This story is a cleverly crafted 7-step program. Each step includes anecdotes from Banman's life illustrating her journey through the trials and tribulations of growing up in an evangelical Mennonite home with a mother whose own refugee experiences have a lasting effect.

"Banman captivates! Her storytelling hits on many broader truths that will resonate with anyone who has fought with their upbringing, endured shame-soaked love, or found themselves having a breakdown in a staff meeting." - Kingston Theatre Alliance

The Taming of the Shrew

By William Shakespeare

Shrew (NOUN) / fru /

1. A small rodent similar to a mouse.
2. An ill-tempered, scolding woman. (See: Katherina Minola)

Example sentences for "shrew": Katherina Minola, an adult student at Padua University working to get her PhD in Gender Studies, has caught the eye of a "gentleman" (re: dudebro) of Verona. Can his masculine charms and overbearing personality make an honest woman of her and tame this SHREW?

How Bono Saved my Life (Three Times)

NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Sonya Ballantyne

"Hearing that song for the first time stopped me dead in my tracks and I wondered how this person I had never met knew the contents of my heart."

Long-time Fringe reviewer and first-time Fringe performer Sonya Ballantyne tells the story of the three times she came close to ending her life and how her teenage obsession with the band U2 (specifically lead singer and activist Bono) kept her going.

From the Rez to the Vegas Sphere, come with Sonya on her journey.

The Naked Mennonite: Genesis

NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Alan Fehr

The origins of everything is a deep and mysterious question.

Unless you're a Biblical literalist. Then it was all settled a few thousand years ago in the Middle East.

Dive into the wild stories of Genesis from the perspective that every word is "God-breathed" and cannot be wrong. Creation, curses, authoritarianism, and an alarming number of foreskins all get examined.

See how these stories still shape beliefs about authority, gender and power today, and maybe understand our world a little better.

Dangerous Curves

By Coralyn Martin/American Vaudeville Company

Public flogging available upon request!

Dangerous Curves is a live improvised torture comedy show where you bring the victims and the coin. We run on a bribe system - the more you pay, the harsher (and funnier) the punishment.

From mild humiliation to outrageous torment, no two shows are ever the same. Grab your friends, your enemies, and your gold... and watch justice be served.

Mr. Loopy Pants: The Art of F*cking Up

NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Jeremy Willamez

*Mr. Loopy Pants: The Art of F*cking Up* is a show like nothing you've ever seen before. It's music, comedy, storytelling and a loop pedal named Peater, all working together to create something new and exciting: SOLO-BASS-COMEDY-LOOP-ROCK.

This show is a TERDtalk about the importance of learning how to fail, given by musical comedian J. Willamez, who has more experience failing than anyone around!

You'll laugh, you'll cry, and if you're not careful, you'll learn something from this unique experience that will keep you guessing til the end.

The Commensality Project

NEW WORK!

By Alex Elliott

Who cared for you through food, and what did they make for you?

My dad cared for me through food for 42 years until he had a stroke and the roles reversed. This contemporary dance performance embodies the universal themes of family, food, memories and connection.

Cluster New Music + Integrated Arts Festival premiered this work in May. Dance, theatre and music lovers will crave this immersive experience.

who will save the night sky?

NEW WORK!

By Philip Jonah Logan Geller

Allow me to take you on a celestial journey to a big boardroom in the sky. Pllleeeaaassee, allow me to whisk my tail and weave you a tale of the telltale signs of a GOOD STORY!

A long time ago, in the future, an important group of star beings got together to discuss the fate of the humans and earth... and the party begins!

Blending bouffon, clown, Métis storytelling and spectacle, who will save the night sky? is an interactive solo performance reminding us of the importance of our relationship to the stars and sky world.

PAY-WHAT-YOU-CAN (PWYC) SHOWS

P. 16 ALL KIDS VENUE SHOWS

At The Door tickets for every performance in the Kids Venue are PWYC. We hope everyone attending will support the artists and pay what they can afford. Advance tickets are $12 and just $6 for Kids 12 & under.

COURTESY SEATING

Venues have a limited number of seats reserved for patrons with mobility challenges or who are low vision/blind, hard of hearing/Deaf or pregnant. To facilitate easy access, we ask these patrons to check in at the venue ticket table 30 minutes before showtime.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE VENUES

The  icon indicates a wheelchair accessible venue. To facilitate easy access, wheelchair patrons are asked to check in at the ticket table 30 minutes before showtime.

Indoor venues are wheelchair accessible EXCEPT for venues 5, 14, 23, 25 & 30.

“$10 TIX” PERFORMANCES

If you're looking for some great deals, check out the “$10 tix” performances that some companies have selected. These performances are highlighted in yellow on the Master Schedule and in the individual show listings. These tickets are available in advance or at the door, but please review all info on page 10.
